Our Founder

Sanskritapranayabhajanam Shri.P.T.Kuriakkose Master

The heights that the great men reach were not obtained by sudden flight. They, while their companions slept, burnt the midnight oil up. So like Shri.P.T.Kuriakkose Master, son of Shri.Tharu Pulikkottil, born on the 6th of August,1889 at Orumanayoor, had been responsible for the nurturing of the ancient classical language Sanskrit. He worked day in and day out for the welfare of the institution, which was founded in the year 1909. He had done so much to enliven the status of classical language and that we are indebted to him beyond measure. He is a nonpareil as he had bequeathed all his property, belongings and possessions in order to popularize the language. The institution brought up by his efforts has been now raised to the status of a campus of Deemed University governed by MHRD from 1979. Sanskrit is now taught here in both under graduate and post graduate level. Due to lack of space, the institution was shifted from Pavaratty to Puranattukara. The premise at Pavaratty is kept as a monument and is now known as "P.T.Kuriakkose Smriti Bhavan". Let us pay obeisance to our great founder.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF P.T.KURIAKKOSE SMRITI BHAVAN, PAVARATTY

Behind the rundown of mortar and bricks, the heritage building supported by wooden pillars and beams, the Pavaratty Centre of Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan (DU), continues to be a vibrant centre of Sanskrit studies for students from various parts of the country who make Pavaratty their home for the love of the ancient traditional language of India.

In as early as 1909, the sapling of the banyan tree to be later known as Sahithya Deepika Sanskrit College at Pavaratty was planted by Shri P.T.Kuriyakkose Master, S/O Shri Tharu Pulikkottil born on August 6th 1889 at Orumanayoor, which is not far away from the famous Guruvayur Temple and the historically important Palayur Church. He pledged his entire property, belongings and possessions in order to popularize the language.

On 1st July 1911, the school was given the name 'Sahithya Deepika'. The then Madras government gave recognition to the school in 1913. In 1916 the institution was raised to the status of Advanced School. The services of the renowned teachers like Edathumpadikkal Korappan Gurukkal, Vattarangath Padmanabhan Nair and Poovathur Chalissery Vasudevan Elayath contributed to raise the reputation of the school far and wide.

Punnessery Neelakantha Sharma, one of the most illustrious Sanskrit scholars of that time and the founder of the Pattambi Sanskrit College conferred the title of honour 'Sanskruta Pranaya Bhajanam' to Kuriakkose Master out of his appreciation of the later's love of Sanskrit and the devotion to its propagation.

Higher courses like Sanskrit Vidwan and Siromani were introduced in 1932. On 3rd June 1934, the institution was recognized as a college under the Madras University. The construction of the building of Pavaratty centre was completed in 1939. Following the reamalgamation of the States on the basis of language, the college came under the jurisdiction of Kerala University in 1957. The faculty at that time consisted of scholars and pundits like Prof.P.C.Vasudevan Elayath, Prof.K.P.Narayana Pisharodi, Prof.E.R.Sri Krishna Sharma, Prof.N.D.Krishnan Unni, Prof.M.P.Sankunni Nair and Shri Govinda Pisharodi.

The college was affiliated to Calicut University in 1966. Mr. Francis son of Kuriakkose Master took over the charge of the Principal in the same year. Calicut University issued orders transferring the management in the name of Mr.Francis and Mr.Jose on 9th Feb.1970. Prof.Venkata Krishna, Principal of Pattambi College was appointed as Honorary Principal in 1969. The Golden Jubilee of the institution was celebrated on 3rd and 4th Oct.1971 with Justice P.Subhrmanya Potti of Kerala High Court as the Chief Guest. Padmabhushan Dr.V.Raghavan from Madras, Prof.K.Madhava Menon, the then Director of Collegiate Education of Kerala State, Shri A.P.Udaya Bhanu, Resident Editor of Mathrubhumi were also present to grace the Jubilee celebration.

In anticipation of the probable taking over of the institution by the central government the name of the college was changed as Guruvayur Sahithya Deepika Sanskrit Vidyapeetha, Pavaratty. In 1974 the Collegiate Wing of the Vidyapeetha was shifted to the beach which came to be known as Dwaraka Beach there after. On 10th July 1978 the meeting for the final decision of take-over was chaired by the then HRD Minister.

The Formal inauguration of the Kendriya Sanskrit Vidyapeeth, Guruvayur took place on 16th July 1979, where Dr.M.Madhusoodan Mishra and Mr.V.S.Sarin from the Sansthan's office in New Delhi represented the Central Government. Prof.S.Venkatakrishnan the then Principal without whose dedicated service the take-over of the college could not have been possible. Prof. P.C.Vasudeva Elayath, who was the Department Head of the Sahitya, deserved special gratitude for having served the Pavaratty Sanskrit College through three succeeding generations – Professor's father P.C.Vasudeva Elayath, Professor Vasudeva Elayath and his son P.C.Muralee Madhavan . He had rendered his service in the struggle for take-over and later had served as Professor and Head for the Department of Sahithya of Sri Shankaracharya University of Sanskrit, Kalady, has come back to Guruvayur Campus as Professor and Head of Sahithya Department to lead and encourage the team to perform to their optimum all the time.

Other renowned scholars included Prof.P.Raman Nambiar, Prof.D.Damodara Pisharodi, Prof.K.Govindan Nambiar, Prof.N.D.Krishnan Unni, Prof.V.V.Ramachandra Iyyer, Shri K.Neelakantha Nambissan, Shri M.Govindan Nambair, Shri M.Achuthan Nair, Prof.K.P.Damodaran Nambissan, Shri C.R.Rama Warriar, Shri P.K.Francis, Shri P.K.Jose and Smt. K.Padmavathy Amma. A team of young and enthusiastic teachers like Shri K.L.Sebastian, Shri K.T.Madhavan, Shri P.G.Srinivasan and Shri P.C.Muralee Madhavan were in forefront following the footprints of the veteran group.

Prof.K.P.Damodaran Nambissan was the first Principal of the Vidyapeetha. In July 1980 a new Principal Dr.C.D.Bijalwan from the UP was appointed by the Sansthan. In 1983, the main campus of the Vidyapeetha was shifted to Puranattukara. The building at Pavaratty "P.T.Kuriakkose Smriti Bhavan" as it is known, is now Centre of Correspondence and Distance Education Courses in Sanskrit.

The Rashtriya Sanskrit Sansthan (DU) offers courses under its Distance Education Programme like Bridge Course, Prak-Shastri, Shastri and Acharya.
